Numb. 1812

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 29. to Monday April 2. 1683.

Genoua, March 17.

YEsterday arrived here the John and Thomas Ketch, from Amsterdam; She met, some days since, in these Seas, the Thomas and Jane, bound with Piece-goods from London for this place. The Fames Galley and the Leghorne Merchant Sailed from hence since our last for Leghorne, the Rebecca for Lubon, and the Succeſs for Gallipoli Four Genoueſes are upon their departure for Spain. They have Lanched here four new Galleys, which they are fitting to Sea.

Genoua, March 24. This Week are arrived here the Thomas and Jane, and the Advice from Alicant, and the Mary from London. The Good-will is upon her departure for Leghorne.

Vienna, March 21. The Expreſs that arrived here some days agone from Count Wallaſtain, the Emperor's Ambaſſador at Warſaw, did not bring an account of the Concluſion of the League he is Treating there, as was reported, but was only sent by him to inform the Emperor of the good Progreſs he had made in his Negotiation, and that he doubted not but he ſhould in a very ſhort time finiſh it to his Imperial Majeſties ſatisfaction. By this League, if it take effect, the King of Poland will be obliged to give the Turks a Diverſion towards Caminiec and the Ukrain, with an Army of 30000 Men, and to permit the Chevalier de Lubomirski to raiſe 6000 Poliſh Horſe, which are to joyn the Imperial Army, and to be paid by the Emperor; and in conſideration hereof the Emperor is to pay preſently 300000 Crowns to the King of Poland, &c. From Buda we have advice, That the Grand Vizier was expected there the beginning of May, and that he intends to divide the Ottoman Troops into three Armies, one of which is to Attack ſome conſiderable place, while the others keep the Field. The Emperor has appointed the General Rendezvous of his Forces to be the 25th of the next Month at Pruck, on the Frontiers of Hungary; they will, when together, conſiſt of 60000 Fighting Men; and beſides theſe, the Troops of Hungaria and Croatia are to be formed into diſtinct Bodies, and to act as there ſhall be occaſion. The Preſident Canon is arrived here from Inſprucke, being ſent by the Duke of Lorrain to confer with their Miniſters about his Highneſs's Affairs; he is expected here himſelf very ſuddenly, being to Command the Imperial Army againſt the Turks. There are Letters from Hungary which ſay, That Count Teckely began to miſtruſt the Turks, and that for his ſecurity he was retired to a ſtrong place on the Frontier of Poland, called Neſmarcke; but this will need a Confirmation. We have likewiſe advice, That the Baſſa of Buda had received Orders to deſtroy the Country, as far as Veſprin, Popa, and Datis. They begin to work on the new Fortifications that are to be made for the Security of this City, and the next Week the Country People will come in, and to make room for them, the Soldiers that were quartered in the Suburbs are removed.

Ratisbonne, March 25. We cannot write of any thing from hence but the continuance of the difference between the two Colledges; both of them perſiſt in their Concluſions, and by reaſon thereof the Treaty which they reſolved to enter upon with the Count de Crecy, for the eſtabliſhing a firm Peace between the Empire and the Crown of France, is not yet begun. Monſieur Stratman is not yet returned from Vienna.

Francfort, March 30. The States of Franconia are aſſembled at Nuremberg, where the Count de Hohenloe is expected on the part of the Emperor. Prince Waldeck, General of the Forces of the Empire, is going to Munick, to confer with the Elector of Bavaria about ordering the Troops which his Electoral Highneſs is to aſſiſt the Emperor with. From Ratisbonne they write, That the Imperial Commiſſioner, the Biſhop of Aichſtadt, did very earneſtly preſs the Dyet to diſpatch the point of the Publick Security, and to call upon the Princes and States of the Empire to furniſh their Quota of the Army of 60000 Men, which the Dyet reſolved long ſince to have on Foot for the defence of the Empire. The Letters we receive from Vienna tell us, That the general Rendezvous of the Imperial Troops is to be on the 25th of the next Month at Pruck, on the River Leytha; That the Emperor will be preſent at it, and that afterwards he will remove with the whole Court to Lintz; That his Imperial Majeſty is raiſing 12000 Huſſars, and 10000 Croats, which are to be employed on the Frontiers, to hinder the Incurſions of the Turks; That the Letters from Poland gave great hopes of the ſpeedy Concluſion of the Alliance Count Wallaſtain is negotiating at Warſaw, which was very welcome News at Vienna, for that the Poles will be able to give the Turks a great diverſion. The Letters from Hungary ſay, That the Ottoman Forces that are to be in the Field this Summer, againſt the Emperor, will conſiſt of 239 thouſand Men, and that the Grand-Vizier will march immediately into the lower Hungary, while the Ali Baſſa acts, with the Army he is to have under his Command, in the Upper Hungary.

Hamburg, April 2. Great Preparations are making at Glucksſtadt againſt the arrival of the King of Denmark, who is expected there about the middle of this Month. The Sieur Bierman, Envoy Extraordinary from that King to the Princes of Luneburg, has been very well received at Zell, but